She graduated from Grayson College with a nursing degree, and in a few years was the OB-GYN coordinator at Memorial Hospital in Denison. In the late 1970's, she became the coordinator of the Watson W. Wise Dialysis Center. Mickey chose to stop employment in 1980 to focus on loving her family and raising her children, but she was proud to maintain her nursing license throughout the remainder of her life. She enjoyed serving in the Lion's Club and held the position of Secretary/Treasurer for several years. Over the last decade, Mickey enjoyed serving in the medical mission field to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with those in need. In the last twelve years, Mickey took many mission trips: Zimbabwe 2011, Madagascar 2012, Dominican Republic 2012, Mozambique and Kenya 2013, Niger and Peru 2014, and numerous trips to Chiapas, Mexico among the Mayan Indian Descendants. She traveled with Joyce Meyer Ministries.

She is survived by her husband, Al; son, Brian Robnett and wife, Kathryn; daughter, Allison Arnold and husband, Miles; son, Nathaniel Brown and wife, Courtney; mother, Arlene Hendrix; brother, Johnny Mitchusson; and five beloved grandchildren- Ragan, Noah, and Claire Brown; and Hudson and Brooklyn Arnold; sister-in-law, Carol Light and husband, Colin; brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Ron and Nancy Rodgers; nieces and nephews- Britton Fuller, Ron Rodgers, Randy Rodgers, Lana Rodgers, Jason Mitchusson and Shannon Dophied.

Mickey was preceded in death by her father, Bill Mitchusson; and her father-in-law and mother-in-law, Woodrow and Viola Brown.

“ Al, Nathaniel, Allison, Brian and families - Prayers for your comfort. Mickey was everything these posts have so lovingly described and more. Did not know of, but not surprised to read of all her mission work. Just know how gracious she always was with Blake, as a childhood friend of Nathaniel, then as an adult
Pure love and grace.

“ Although I know she did, I can't seem to recall ever seeing Mickey frown. All I can remember is her radiant smile and positive attitude and enthusiasm for all life had to offer.

How fortunate are we who knew her, no matter how brief the time.

We wish to convey our wishes for peace to her dear family, whom she loved beyond beyond.....

“ Mickey was one of the greatest examples of being selfless. She was an inspiration to many and I aspire to be like her one day. She had so much joy and it was contagious. She will be missed, but I'm glad she is not suffering anymore and is in the loving arms of Jesus.

“ WE have served together with Mickey on several mission with Hand of Hope. She always was available for late night prayer, uplifting conversations, long hours of grinding work, smiles and hugs and of course a word of encouragement...loving Jesus all the while...

When Moses spend time with the Lord on Mount Sinai, he came down from the mountain with a 'glow' on his face, when the disciples were on the Mount of Transfiguration with Jesus, they came down with a 'glow'MICKEY BROWN HAD THIS GLOW ALL OF THE TIME....IT WAS OBVIOUS THAT SHE SPENT TIME WITH JESUS....

We mourn her loss and grieve with you today, and yet we raise God she is with Him in paradise, awaiting our future arrivals....

Bless you Al and family

“ May God Bless all who loved and knew Mickey. She was a precious friend to me and I will miss her. She was a powerful believer with a sweet spirit, who loved Jesus. I met Mickey on the Missions Trips through Hand of Hope. She was my mentor in sharing Jesus to people in Kenya, Africa. She encouraged me as we ministered and prayed together for the people. She loved Jesus with all her heart and she had a passion for souls. Jesus' Love shown through her and touched many lives. She is with our Lord now. May her example of the Love of Jesus and Love for souls continue in our hearts.

I am praying for her family and friends. May the Love and Comfort of our Lord help us as we remember and celebrate her life.

“ My beloved Mickey, you are a soul bearing no other emotion but love for mankind. A light will forever shine in this ugly world where every print of you touched. Your husband, children and grandchildren were blessed to have had your love and nurture them. I was blessed to have known you well enough to bestow your name upon my own daughter and she idolized you for these past 42 years. God flourishes today, the children are flocking around you I am sure and you are smiling like you always did. With floods of tears I say, not goodbye, but until we meet again, my sweet friend. Forever loved, Barbara Jacobs Marr

“ So saddened by the loss of Mickey. Many of us know the struggle of her illness and while we may be happy that her suffering has ended we cannot help but morn the bright light that is no longer present. She is truly one of the most beautiful people I've ever known. I adored her from the minute we met. I was in high school and she was a bit older. Her smile lit up a room and she treated me like I was the most special friend in the room. She trusted me to teach her precious beautiful daughter and every time our paths crossed I always felt that same gift of friendship she shared when I was a teen. My prayers and heart are with her family and close friends. Thank you for sharing her light with the rest of us. You are loved and will be missed Mickey.

Praying for God's peace, love and blanket of comfort be with All your family, friends and loved ones!!!

“ What a gift Mickey was to all who knew her--and all who knew her loved her dearly. The love of God shone brightly in her beautiful eyes and glowing smile. I have known Mickey for many years and am so thankful for the place she had in my life and I enjoyed in hers. Once certainty: she loved God and she cherished her family and sweet Al.

She battled hard in the LORD's strength and He empowered her for many extra months, but now her struggle is ended and I hope that brings some bit of comfort in the tragic loss to her family. ...The battle's over, sweet victory's been won. ... But for those who face today and tomorrow without her, there is a gaping hole. May her love sustain you and the peace of our LORD hold you up. With much love to you all --
